

Center for Self Advocacy Inc.
1021 Broadway Street
4th Floor
Buffalo, New York 14212
(716) 768-1795
CENTER4SA.ORG

Full-Time Coordinator for Outreach and Social Justice Initiatives

Candidate will need:

- Knowledge of meaning of diversity and inclusion
- Knowledge of self-advocacy movement and its relationship to other social justice movements
- Knowledge of intellectual/developmental disabilities
- Ability to work independently with supervision
- Ability to problem solve
- Intersectional approach to disability diversity inclusion and access
- Organizational skills
- Bachelor's degree or higher preferred.

Candidate Experience:

- Social justice background
- Program development
- Strong demonstrated commitment to diversity/inclusion principles
- Supervisory experience preferred
- Experience enacting, promoting, or advancing disability diversity and inclusion within an organization

In this position the candidate will be expected to:

- Develop and monitor social justice programming / group / activities
- Supervise peer mentors
- Engage with community to develop new relationships / networks around social justice issues that affect people with disabilities
- Act as liaison with social justice organizations that are currently collaborating with the Center for Self Advocacy (CSA)
- Maintain existing relationships with disability service provider agencies and disability advocacy organizations, including agencies and organizations that specifically serve people with intellectual / developmental disabilities.
- Complete documentation as required / needed.
- Act as a collaborative team member in the Center for Self Advocacy (CSA) organization.

*People with disabilities are encouraged to apply.

“ We help people with developmental disabilities work and advocate within their community and have an independent and productive lifestyle ”

Center for Self Advocacy Inc.
1021 Broadway Street
4th Floor
Buffalo, New York 14212
(716) 768-1795
CENTER4SA.ORG

This is a one-year position and will continue based on future funding. Please submit your resume and three letters of reference (two professional and one personal) to Samuel Mattle at smattle@center4sa.org. Please call for any questions pertaining to this position at 716-768-1795. Responses requested by February 26, 2021.

“ We help people with developmental disabilities work and advocate within their community and have an independent and productive lifestyle ”